

Who are you pitching too, & why are they giving you their non-refundable attention?

- Answer these 20 questions to be super clear on who you are pitching too & why.

Audience

1. Who are you pitching too?
2. What's in it for them?
3. Who is the final decision maker?
4. Who/what influences the final decision maker?
5. What are the final decision-maker's goals?
6. How do you empower them to reach their goals?
7. Where is the most risk in the decision making process for the end-user?
8. Who are the gatekeepers to success?
9. Who needs tangible details?
10. How does the audience see themselves in the solution you provide?

Goal

1. What is the goal of the pitch?
2. What does success look like?
3. Why does this matter?
4. What happens after the pitch?
5. Why are you spending time pitching to the audience?
6. What information will make your goal happen?
7. Is there a time limit?
8. What is the worst thing that could happen if this is not successful?
9. What is the best thing that could happen when this is successful?
10. What excites you about this project?

Recommended Process

- Answer the above 20 questions to be super clear on who you are pitching too & why.
- This should take about 20-30 minutes of focused work or two-three work sprints of 10 minutes with the time between for reflection & processing.
- Work with simple non-digital tools & make mind-maps or lists as this is the best way to explore your pitching goals, audience needs & the content they need to know.

@Martin - Mol Got your feedback, great points. Will adjust accordingly. Thank you!!!

Hi Martin, thank you for your speech today. I think it helped me already

Need to improve your pitching skills?

Book a call to discuss how we can improve your message structure, speaker performance & slide design.